

Unprecedented Proposed Law Provides African Americans Reparations and Opportunities to Better Their Lives

Press Release- Immediate
Washington, DC

December 28, 2016

On December 23, 2016, proposed legislation was submitted to DC Board of Elections. It is a model for legislators to provide opportunities for previous slave owners, and those that participated in enslavement of African Americans families to make amends.

The proposed legislation submitted by John Cheeks, head of the United States Citizens Recovery Initiative Alliance Inc. (USCRIA), is the first legislation to provide benefits, at no cost to the government or taxpayers. is also an opportunity for Individual families, industries, businesses, faith based institutions, governments and others. to be held accountable.

The legislation will help descendants of American Slaves, many of who live in poor, underserved, and high crime areas in the United States. The benefits are not handouts, and differ from other historical reparations, such as those given to Japanese citizen entered during WW II and Native Americans

1. Aid to businesses
2. Providing educational opportunities.
3. Improving Health
4. Providing Mental Health, Alcohol and Substance Abuse care
5. Housing Ownership
6. Financial Protection
7. Veterans Rights
8. Credit Acceptance
9. Career Rights

All benefits are designed to improve life for individuals, families and communities. In doing so, the nation benefits.

These benefits will be paid by major U.S. and international corporations, foreign governments which fostered and participated in slave trade. Budgets are being prepared for distribution of funds collected from those entities that patriated in some way with slavery. Eligibility criteria have been proposed which include proof by DNA testing, those claiming benefits are 40% descendants of slaves, and they were born in the United States.

Distribution of the benefits has been proposed, in part, to be based on DC Ward populations. Further details are being studied and are schedule to be submitted to the Board of Elections later in January 12, 2017. This is necessary for the initiative to be on the November 2017 ballot for the public to vote if such an initiative should be enacted into law.

The proposed law, the DC Recovery Act of 2016, objective is to restore identities ,cure injuries, and provide opportunities and justice to families that were subjected to inhumane treatment.

The proposed legislation was drafted over a year, by a team of experts and citizens working with USCRIA. For complete text of the proposed legislation go to www.uscra.com and click on "click here".
